Canadian Forces Smash Into Nazis' Last Ferry Terminal Across Maas

Seize Key Town of Middleburg as Battle Virtually Over—Swaying Fight in Germany

LONDON, Nov. 7 (CP).—The month-long battle to clear the Germans from Southwest Holland and from the Scheldt River estuary virtually came to a close tonight as First Canadian Army forces smashed into the Nazis' last ferry terminal across the Maas River and, to the west, seized the key town of Middleburg on Walcheren Island.

Tonight the Berlin radio said Canadian and British assault troops had landed on the big Schouwn Island, north of Walcheren and Beveland Islands, in their relentless drive up the Netherlands west coast.

Supreme Headquarters did not comment on the German assertion, but it was recalled here that previous German reports of First Canadian Army amphibious operations on this coast had received Allied confirmation many hours after Berlin claims.

In Germany itself, American and German troops were locked tonight in a swaying, bitter struggle for the centre of the German town of Vossenack in Hurtgen Forest, with powerful Nazi reinforcements battling fiercely to bar the road to Cologne and the rich Rhine Valley only 30 miles away.

After five days of see-saw fighting, United States First Army infantrymen held half of the mile-and-a-half-long town, and the Germans were solidly entrenched in the other half. Shock troops of both sides actually were fighting from opposite wings of the church to the heart of town.

In Holland, American and Polish troops of the Canadian First Army captured Willemstadt, ferry terminal on the Maas River, and smashed into the outskirts of Moerdijk on the same stream, virtually closing out the month-long battle to drive the Germans from south of the Maas.

It was authoritatively estimated that the losing struggle to hold Southwestern Holland had cost the Nazis from 43,000 to 46,000 troops out of an original force of 100,000. Of these, 26,000 were taken prisoner since October 7.

British troops of the Canadian Army stilled all effective Nazi opposition in Middleburg on Walcheren Island. Verre, on the northeast side of the island, was captured. Only on the northern fringe of Walcheren were the Nazis still making a determined stand.

The Tommies took 3,000 prisoners in Middelburg today, including Lieutenant-General Daser, 60-year-old comander of the German 70th Division.

Allied minesweepers were busy clearing the 50-mile Scheldt Estuary so Allied convoys could begin unloading supplies at Antwerp.

A front dispatch tonight described the fight for Vossenack as "savage as the struggle for Aachen—and one of much greater scope." The town of Schmidt, which the Germans recaptured in a counter-attack two days ago, still was in enemy hands.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—The battle for the Maas River is nearly over. Many towns and villages along its banks have been overrun in the estuary by British forces. The Moerdijk bridges have been destroyed, but, says The Times military correspondent, the long and arduous operation is drawing to a close.

The gains by United Kingdom and Canadian troops will not only allow use of Antwerp when the mines are cleared, but will set free large numbers of troops for fighting elsewhere.

The Canadian First Army, with its United Kingdom and Polish divisions, has been engaged wholly either in the Scheldt fighting or on the mainland forcing the enemy out of his positions which for a long time threatened Antwerp and prevented its use.

Now these troops need no longer be retained in Zeeland. Whether it is decided to force the Maas east of Geertruidenburg or transfer activities to the east of the Dutch salient, increased strength will be available for reinforcements.

Canadian losses, says The Times military expert, were serious enough, but probably did not exceed one-sixth of the German losses.

In the Breskens pocket alone the enemy lost 12,000 prisoners, with thousands more killed and wounded.

Moving Up Troops for Big Attack

Rain Impedes Soviet Siege of Budapest

LONDON, Nov. 7 (AP).—Fighting along the winding Eastern Front slackened generally today—27th anniversary of the Russian revolution—with Moscow announcing only that "there were no essential changes on the front" and that yesterday 18 German tanks were knocked out in scattered local engagements.

Behind the major sectors, however, there was the promise of big operations to come.

The close siege of Budapest was impeded by a third day of torrential rains, but the Russians used the weather as cover for movement of thousands of infantrymen into the front lines beside their tanks, and Soviet artillery shelled the Hungarian capital's defences methodically.

The Paris and Brazzaville radios said that inside the city a veritable civil war was raging among dissident Hungarians and German and Hungarian Nazi troops.

The German radio said that for several days past the Russians had been withdrawing mechanized formations from the East Beskids area of the Polish-Czecho-Slovak frontier. They said this was to reinforce assault divisions preparing for a new large-scale attack towards Tarnow from the Soviet bridgehead on the west side of the Vistula River.

Strong formations have been moved into that area west of Baranow particularly in the past 24 hours and "the early beginning of a big battle is assumed," Berlin said.

Destroy 249 Planes in Raid In Manila Area

PEARL HARBOR, Nov. 7 (CP).—Third Fleet carrier planes returned to the Manila area Sunday, destroying 249 Japanese planes to raise their two-day toll to 440 and running their shipping score to six sunk and 24 damaged.

Admiral Nimitz, announcing the continued neutralization of the Manila area in a communique today, reported additional "heavy damage" was inflicted on ground installations.

Five ships were sunk Sunday and five more, plus several cargo vessels, were damaged. One ship was sunk Saturday and five, plus several cargo ships, damaged.

Admiral Nimitz said the total of cargo ships damaged on both days was 14.

Presence of many cargo ships in Manila Harbor indicates the Japanese either have been able to slip one or more small convoys into the Philippines or were preparing to rush supplies to other Philippine Islands.

The two-day toll of 440 planes probably was the second biggest of the war in the Pacific, exceeded only by the 500-odd record of June 18-19, when the Fifth Fleet destroyed 402 in one day and followed up with scores more the succeeding day.

Admiral Nimitz said that for the two days 113 Japanese planes were shot out of the air and 327 destroyed on the ground.

"Many others were destroyed on the ground by strafing," he added, making no attempt to estimate the number.

American losses were not reported.

Norwegian Minister Arrives in Moscow

LONDON, Nov. 7 (CP).—Trygve Lie, Norwegian Foreign Minister, has arrived in Moscow for conferences with Soviet officials on questions of "common interest" to Russia and Norway, a spokesman for King Haakon's Government announced tonight.

The spokesman said Lie and his party probably would be received by Marshal Stalin. Diplomatic quarters considered this significant since Russian troops are fighting on Norwegian soil.

Blast Jap Airfields

GENERAL MacARTHUR'S HEADQUARTERS, Philippines, Nov. 8 (Wednesday) (AP).—Liberator bombers dropped 200 tons of bombs on Japanese airfields in islands ringing the Visayan Sea, during the past 24 hours to keep them from interfering with American invasion operations at Leyte. MacArthur said at least 15 parked planes were destroyed, three interceptors shot down and the runways cratered.

Bombers Help Eighth Army's New Advance

ROME, Nov. 7 (AP).—British Eighth Army troops, stalled for days outside Forli on the important Bologna-Rimini lateral highway, moved toward the town today, aided by a powerful attack by medium bombers.

Large formations of bombers dropped thousands of fragmentation bombs on troop concentrations and gun positions. Returning pilots said the mission was successful.

Other Allied bombers attacked targets along the Brenner Pass and heavy bombers of the United States Fifteenth Air Force attacked military targets in the Vienna area and Northern Yugoslavia.

Prior to today's advances Eighth Army troops captured a number of hill features southwest of Forli and took several villages in the mountains farther west, but patroling, both German and Allied, continued over most of the Italian front.

Premier King Speaks Over Radio Today

OTTAWA, Nov. 7 (CP).—The Federal Cabinet held a three-hour sitting today but no statement followed the meeting, the first since Friday.

Agriculture Minister Gardiner, who has returned from the West, was present.

Prime Minister Mackenzie King, who will give a half-hour radio address tomorrow night on "Support for the Canadian Army Overseas," usually notifies such a proposed address to his Cabinet colleagues and may have done so today.

Rocket Weapon May Be Hitler's Great Blunder

LONDON, Nov. 7 (AP).—Adolf Hitler may be on the verge of committing his greatest blunder of the war through the use of hate weapons.

They are coming on the scene at least two years too late in this war, but, by using them, Hitler possibly is making the absolute subjugation of Germany a matter of utmost necessity.

No one in the European theatre belittles neutral reports mostly from Sweden, that the Nazis are readying for use their long-range rocket weapons, V-2, with which it is said New York as well as European cities can be bombarded.

The rocket weapon, fired from the ground or airplane, today is at the stage of development which the airplane had reached in the First Great War. It can hit hard, but it has not been developed to a point where it could win a war. From every appearance Germany will be crushed before such development can take place.

And there lies the possibility of Hitler's most enormous error. With V-2 in prospect as the great weapon of a third world war, no single country nor group of nations could rest easily if Germany were free to continue its development.

Sir Archibald Sinclair, Britain's Secretary of State for Air, warned recently that the United Kingdom must be prepared to meet new German weapons which "will be militarily less futile than the flying bomb."

So high an executive does not talk idly on such a subject.

"We are watching them, and they won't take us by surprise," said Sir Archibald.

Their use today might mean the uprooting of Germany to deprive her of any possible, future use of such a weapon.

Conceded Re-election for Fourth Term

FRANKLIN DELANO ROOSEVELT

President of the United States and commander-in-chief of its armed forces, whose re-election as the nation's chief executive for a fourth term was conceded by his opponent, New York's Governor Thomas E. Dewey, Republican party leader, early today (Wednesday). While returns were still far from complete, President Roosevelt held a commanding lead in 32 of the 48 states.

Troops in Holland Want Conscripts Sent to War

By ROSS MUNRO
Canadian Press War Correspondent

WITH THE CANADIANS IN HOLLAND, Nov. 7 (CP).—Canadians on this front in general are disappointed that Gen. McNaughton, recently-appointed Minister for Defence, has declared himself in favor of the continuance of voluntary enlistment.

They interpreted his Arnprior, Ont., speech as meaning that home defence troops will not be sent overseas, and this is the opposite to what the great majority of the troops here are anxious to see happen.

When the Cabinet change brought the "Zombie" question into the open, the men here took a definite stand even on the meagre information they have been able to read on the controversy. They hoped a policy of reinforcing the overseas army with men from the home defence force would be adopted.

At this stage of the war, they feel it is high time that the men who stayed at home should now share some of the burden of overseas service. While they are all volunteers themselves, the troops here are cynical about the prospects of further voluntary enlistment at home on the scale that would be necessary to keep up a steady flow of good reinforcements on this front.

CANADIAN FORCES IN ITALY PUZZLED

WITH THE CANADIANS IN ITALY, Nov. 7 (CP).—Canadian troops in Italy remain puzzled about the political implications in the change-over in the Defence Department at Ottawa, no concrete statements from either side have been received here so far on which to base opinions.

Col. Ralston, in the opinion of the men here, has enhanced his standing by his courage in trying to do something definite about one of the principal "beefs" of the boys—"Zombie-ism."

At the same time the position of Gen. McNaughton, Col. Ralston's successor as Defence Minister, in the eyes of the men is such that where they would ordinarily have drawn conclusions by this time, actually they are waiting to hear from him personally.

The first report in any detail was published in The Maple Leaf on Sunday.

Kenney to Be New Minister

VANCOUVER, Nov. 7 (CP).—The Province said to a newspage story today that Edward T. Kenney, of Terrace, Liberal member of the British Columbia Legislature for Skeena, would be named Lands Minister in the British Columbia Cabinet succeeding the late A. Wells Gray. The newspaper said Mr. Kenney would take over the post from Premier John Hart, who assumed the Lands Ministry in addition to his portfolio as Finance Minister after the death of Mr. Gray last Spring.

Yamashita Sent To Philippines

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Nov. 7 (AP).—Indicating concern over American successes in the Philippines, the Japanese war lords have switched generals for that area.

Gen. Tomoyuki Yamashita, Japan's victorious general at Singapore and Corregidor, will fight it out with Gen. MacArthur, having been transferred from Malaya to serve as commander-in-chief of Japanese forces in the Philippines, Tokio radio said tonight.

Yamashita, whose change of command was announced in a broadcast recorded in the United States by the Federal Communications Commission, apparently succeeds Lt.-Gen. Shigenori Kuroda in the Philippines.

Crush Resistance

KANDY, Ceylon, Nov. 7 (CP).—Allied troops have crushed all enemy resistance around Kennedy Peak southeast of Tiddim in Northwestern Burma, and have cleared an additional eight-mile stretch of the main road to Fort White, the Allied Command announced today. The British 14th Army drove to within two miles of Fort White.

HONOR FOR REPORTER

BLOOMINGTON, Ind., Nov. 7 (AP).—President Herman B. Wells announced today Indiana University would award the honorary degree of Doctor of Humane Letters to Ernie Pyle, war correspondent, at a special convocation November 13. Pyle, an alumnus of the university, is now on vacation at his home in New Mexico.

Torpedo Boats Break Up Big Enemy Convoy

A BRITISH PORT, Nov. 7 (CP).—A large German merchant vessel was destroyed and an E-boat set afire by the 29th Canadian flotilla of motor torpedo boats in a blazing 10-hour action off the Netherlands coast recently, it was announced today.

A heavily-escorted German convoy was sighted off the Hook of Holland just after dark on November 1 by a flotilla unit under the command of Lt.-Cmdr. Tony Law, D.S.C., of Quebec City. A 3,000-ton merchant vessel and a barge towed by a tug were escorted by several trawlers, armed coasters, four minesweepers and eight E-boats.

During the action the Canadian force suffered only two casualties, both from a vessel commanded by Lieut. Glenn Creba, of Winnipeg. They were A.B. Harry Broadley, of St. Catharines, Ont., who was fatally wounded by shrapnel, and A.B. A. Bevan, of Charlottetown, who was slightly wounded in the heel.

After several exchanges of gunfire the convoy turned and fled.

Casualties Heavy In Leyte Struggle

GENERAL MacARTHUR'S HEADQUARTERS, Philippines, Nov. 8 (Wednesday) (AP).—American ground forces battled reinforced Japanese today for a network of ridges commanding the enemy's retreat route to Ormoc, last escape port on the west coast of Leyte Island.

The Americans apparently were near Cabulan, a village about 16 miles north of Ormoc.

Some American units that penetrated the ridge country were forced to draw back at night or fight it out with numerically superior enemy forces. The Japanese still were bringing up reinforcements from Ormoc.

Most of the isolated American groups held their ground, but casualties were heavy on both sides. The enemy turned captured machine-guns on the Americans, taking a heavy toll.

Roosevelt's Re-election Conceded as State Vote Swings to Democrats

Latest Returns Show President in Lead in 32 of Total 48 States

NEW YORK, Nov. 8 (Wednesday) (AP).—Governor Thomas E. Dewey told a press conference at 2:15 a.m. that "it's clear that Mr. Roosevelt has been re-elected for a fourth term."

In a brief address carried by all radio networks, the Republican Presidential nominee said he was grateful for the support he had received and declared that the Republican Party "emerges revitalized from this campaign."

"I am confident that all Americans will join me in the hope that Divine Providence will guide and protect the President of the United States."

The Republican nominee had fallen farther and farther behind in tabulations pouring in during the early morning hours after a see-saw struggle in early counting. The ballots of nearly 27,000,000 Americans showed, at the time he gave up:

For Roosevelt, 14,411,965.
For Dewey, 12,165,763.

HYDE PARK, N.Y., Nov. 8 (Wednesday) (AP).—President Roosevelt sent the following telegram to Governor Thomas E. Dewey:

"I thank you for your statement which I have heard over the air a few minutes ago."

The telegram was dispatched from the President's Hyde Park home 15 minutes after Dewey had conceded his defeat.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8 (Wednesday) (CP).—President Franklin D. Roosevelt, pursuing his precedent-shattering career is President of the United States for a fourth consecutive term.

In the face of a growing Democratic popular vote majority his Republican opponent, Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, of New York, said at 3.15 a.m., E.D.T., this morning, that yesterday's elections made it "clear that Mr. Roosevelt has been elected for a fourth term."

Long before that an increasing number of newspapers supporting Dewey had conceded the 42-year-old candidate's defeat after a strenuous campaign to end the 12-year Democrat-Roosevelt regime in Washington.

Late last night President Roosevelt, at his Hyde Park home up the Hudson River from this city, told serenading neighbors that he thought he was re-elected.

Early this morning the last hope of the Dewey followers was swept away when New York's 47 electoral votes were transferred to the Roosevelt column in a growing flood of votes in which Liberal and American Labor party support swung the victory to the Democratic ticket.

Returns were far from complete.

Montrealers in Initial Attack

WITH THE CANADIANS IN HOLLAND, Nov. 7 (CP).—The Black Watch Regiment from Montreal made the initial attack along the narrow causeway from South Beveland Island to Walcheren Island, one of the key advances in the now-closing battle to clear the Scheldt estuary approaches to Antwerp, it was permitted to report tonight. The regiment made the assault in the face of very heavy German fire fighting all day through a storm of machine-gun bullets, mortar bombs and shrieking 88 shells which swept the 1,100-foot-long causeway.

They got right up to a concrete-walled dike at the Walcheren end of the highway and held their ground to spite of fierce Nazi opposition while a Western battalion thrust through their positions and established the first bridgehead on Walcheren Island.

Major Bill Ewing and Major MacDuff, both from Montreal, led the two leading companies in this action.

FACE STARVATION

EINDHOVEN, Holland, Nov. 7 (AP).—More than 2,200,000 civilians in North Holland—slightly less than half of the population of that area—are in immediate danger of starvation this Winter, Netherlands officials in liberated Holland said today.

Prime Minister to Meet Legion Council

OTTAWA, Nov. 7 (CP).—Canadian Legion officials said today Prime Minister Mackenzie King has agreed to meet the Dominion executive council of the Legion to discuss the reinforcement of Canadian forces overseas.

No time has yet been set for the interview, but it is expected it will take place today or tomorrow.

OTTAWA, Nov. 7 (CP).—George N. Zaroubin, Soviet Ambassador, and Mrs. Zaroubin entertained at a reception tonight at the Russian Embassy on the occasion of the 27th anniversary of the founding of the Soviet State. Among the guests were Prime Minister Mackenzie King and members of the Federal Cabinet.

Alberni-West Coast Attains Its Loan Goal

Alberni-West Coast unit yesterday went over the top in its Seventh Victory Loan drive for $585,000.

North Saanich sub-unit put up its second pennant. It has oversubscribed to the extent of 134 per cent, reaching $164,000. Saanich municipal employees went over the top.

The army in Victoria area announced subscriptions reached $249,150 or 101 per cent. Pacific Command reached 100 per cent.

Royal Canadian Navy in this area passed the $500,000 mark, reaching $517,000 for a percentage of 145.7.

Additional payroll groups reached their quota.

With these spurs behind the Vancouver Island campaign, Victory Loan officials in Greater Victoria yesterday examined this area's $6,180,000 quota in relation to the record of subscriptions and began to think in terms of "$7,000,000 for the Seventh Loan."

In the 24 hours preceding subscriptions totaled $350,000, bringing the Greater Victoria total to $5,477,300. If placed $7,000,000 within reach, they said. The loan books will remain open until midnight Saturday.

Vancouver Island yesterday reached 82 per cent with $8,910,800.

Four Days to Go

AT midnight on Saturday Canada's Seventh Victory Loan will take place with its predecessors as current history, the response of the people of this land in war. Unquestionably, the Seventh Victory Loan will reach its objective, and perhaps pass that. Here on Vancouver Island these four days must be made to count. The time for words is over. Only actions will speak now. Buy bonds today, and make your effort the best that you honestly can.

More Women for War Work To Release Men for Service

OTTAWA, Nov. 7 (CP).—Increased efforts to meet labor requirements with women workers is expected to result from the manpower policy announced last night by Defence Minister McNaughton.

the importance of maintaining munitions production, called for more Canadian women to work in war plants.

Efforts to recruit more woman workers will be an intensification of a program carried on by the Labor and Munitions Departments for some months.

Since early Summer an active campaign has been carried on in an effort to get 10,000 new workers—7,000 of them women—for munitions plants; but, although actual figures have not been made public, it is understood results so far have little more than balanced the ordinary labor turnover.

The number of soldiers who will

General McNaughton's policy of prohibiting the use of medically fit call-up soldiers in civilian jobs is not definitely known. Both Labor and Defence Departments declined actual figures, but it has been given as "several hundred."

This number of job vacancies will be added to an existing requirement of some 173,000 workers. In seeking persons to fill these jobs, Selective Service, before the recent Cabinet crisis, had immediate need of 57,000 women.

Further vacancies are likely to be created by a tightening of the Government's attitude toward postponements from compulsory military service.

Latest complete manpower statistics are for June 1 and show at that time there were 100,273 postponements in effect. Since that time there has been a combing of the men on postponement with a view to obtaining additional men for the army and for essential industries. It is presumed that the number now on postponement is below the 100,000 mark.

At the same date manpower distribution figures showed that of the 4,325,000 women, 14 years and over, 1,066,000 were in the armed forces or gainfully employed. There is believed to have been little change in those figures since that date.

Women in industry then numbered 1,060,000 and in the forces 36,000. Those employed at civilian jobs were: War industry, 195,000, civilian industry, 745,000, and employed on their own account, 110,000. In addition, 775,000 women were shown as residing on farms and an undetermined percentage would be engaged in farm work, most of them on a part-time basis.

Resignation of Stuart Reported

MONTREAL, Nov. 7 (CP).—The Montreal Gazette said today in an Ottawa dispatch that it was reported "semi-officially" that Lt.-Gen. Kenneth Stuart, chief of staff, Canadian Military Headquarters, London, "has resigned."

"It is said his resignation was made voluntarily, two days after the resignation of his chief, Hon. J. L. Ralston, as Minister of National Defence," The Gazette said.

"The resignation at this time of such a distinguished officer is giving rise to widespread discussion in the capital from the points of view both of its military and its political significance."

Values of B.C. Fish Increased

VANCOUVER, Nov. 7 (CP).—While British Columbia's salmon production was below 1942, values of herring, pilchards and halibut soared, the Dominion Bureau of Statistics reported today.

Herring showed a decrease of 496,884 hundredweight, or 21 per cent in quantity landed, but an increase in landed value of $117,959, or 8 per cent, and a decrease in market value of $414,124.

Halibut was at 15 per cent in quantity, 51 per cent in landed value and 24 per cent in market value. Pilchards increased 38 per cent in catch, 112 per cent in landed value, 37 per cent in market value.

Dogfish dropped in quantity, but increased market value of liver oil more than compensated for the drop in meal and industrial oil. Final value of greyfish (dogfish) products was 63 per cent higher than 1942.

Salmon catch showed 25 per cent decrease in quantity, 44 per cent in landed value and 34 per cent in market value. Total production value of salmon was 45 per cent of the total value of fisheries production of the province.

the Twenty-First Army Group says the Royal Navy is already at work, and within the shortest possible time the port will be available, not only for arms and supplies, but for food shipments to the starving Dutch and Belgian peoples.

Allied armies along the whole Western Front, says The Times correspondent at Supreme Headquarters, are now standing on the offensive and are improving, by local actions, positions they require for the forthcoming decisive trial of strength.

There are still formidable river lines and other natural defences to be crossed before the offensive can be carried into the German plains, but all the way from the Swiss frontier to the North Sea the enemy has been forced to yield on all fronts.

Such a rate of attrition makes heavy inroads into his reserves and newly-raised divisions. It is doubtful, indeed, whether the Germans have more than 100 divisions, all of them much below proper strength, for defence of their West Wall. One hundred thousand Nazis are still shut up in Atlantic ports.

The fierce battle for Budapest is proceeding in wretched weather, says The Times Moscow correspondent. Specially-picked German troops, including Schutzstaffein, are defending the Magyar capital with armor.

While Budapest will be of value as a base for future Soviet operations, its immediate occupation would tie up troops required for advances elsewhere. The main Soviet plan is to defeat the German Army in the neighborhood first.

Army Launch Burns

VANCOUVER, Nov. 7 (CP).—Fire of undisclosed origin today completely gutted an army transport launch, the M.V. Z26, attached to the R.C.A.S.C., in Coal Harbor.

The crew was saved by the arrival of a city police boat.

Police succeeded in quelling the flames before they could burn through the hull. A naval landing barge from H.M.C.S. Discovery assisted in putting out the fire.

The burned launch was used for transporting supplies to outlying posts.

FORT ERIE, Ont., Nov. 7 (CP).—C. H. Price, chairman of Fort Erie Council's finance committee, gave notice today that he will seek to have presented to electors at municipal elections, December 4, a by-law which will result in every returned Fort Erie serviceman and woman now on active service being presented with a lot.

Ralston Says Reinforcement And Supply Problems Difficult

MONTREAL, Nov. 7 (CP).—Col. J. L. Ralston, in his first public speech since he resigned as Defence Minister, today described his recent battlefront tour and said "the problems of supply and reinforcements have been extremely difficult," but ignored the Cabinet crisis which saw him succeeded by Gen. McNaughton.

He did not elaborate on his reference to reinforcements, the subject which precipitated the Cabinet crisis.

In a speech prepared for delivery at a luncheon of the Rotary Club of which he is a member, Col. Ralston paid tribute to Canadian fighting men, spoke of their hopes and aspirations, pictured his visit to the graves of fallen warriors, and described the fighting.

It was a Remembrance Day meeting, and taking this as his theme, Col. Ralston spoke of ground won and victory paid for in casualties.

He had worked on the speech for several hours in Ottawa yesterday, and only interrupted his work to draft a short statement to the press which said he would leave it to Prime Minister Mackenzie King to release details of the Cabinet crisis.

Speaking of the difficulties facing the troops overseas, Col. Ralston said miracles had been worked. "In England I saw men in hospital who had been wounded only 36 hours before on the Leopold Canal."

He had talked to the wounded.

"Don't try to tell those men who were in hospital that the Boche is licked. They have had experience. They know that he fights harder and more stubbornly than ever. That is why they are in hospital, in a plaster cast or with a face burned to a crisp or with a leg or an arm—or both—missing.

"Don't talk to these men about the war being over. They know that there is bitter fighting ahead."

At another point he referred to the fighting in Italy and said: "It has taken five weeks since I was there to advance the line 18 miles."

on the home front were nothing.

"On this Remembrance Day we must remind ourselves that all these things put together don't put out of business a single German, won't regain one foot of conquered territory, won't lessen one iota the menace of Hitler and Tojo to our world, unless sailors, soldiers and airmen were ready to give our efforts a cutting edge by risking their lives in the battle line," he said.

The battlefront and home front were interdependent and would continue so when the war was over. "They must keep each other constantly in their minds and hearts."

Home to the soldier meant "something tangible, invisible, and as far as they can make it so, indestructible. It means a spirit—it means a way of life, the way of life their pioneer ancestors toiled for and established . . . to preserve it, our boys have gone to war. They realize they had a job to do and they want to do it quickly and get back."

Great hearts alone understand how much glory there is in being good.

Oh! How Delightful

Oh, how enchanting, can certainly be said of the arrivals in dressy occasion dresses.

Canada's Navy, guardian of a vital chain

JUST as the steady flow of Canadian and American-made war matériel to Britain was indispensable to the successful invasion of the continent, so final Victory depends on the maintenance of this stream of supplies from America to Europe, from factory to firing line.

The protection of these vast convoys is the specialized job of Canada's Navy. History will record the magnificent manner in which it has been performed.

Indeed, in protecting convoy after convoy, Canada has forged another essential link between these two great comrades-in-arms, John Bull and Uncle Sam. And when Tomorrow brings us Victory and Peace . . . surely Canada, of all nations, is best situated to further the continuation of goodwill between the British Commonwealth and the United States which is so necessary for a lasting World Peace.

In our hearts is the same concept of freedom!

CANADIANS, Americans and Englishmen share the same concept of freedom . . . share, too, one of the earliest defenders of freedom. He was a Calvert, a famous English statesman, Secretary of State to King James I, in the early 17th century.

In 1622 Calvert founded a colony in Newfoundland and, later, a colony in Maryland. Thus, over 300 years ago Calvert forged a link which has strengthened throughout the years . . . joining together for the good of mankind the British Commonwealth and the United States.

In the new settlements the principle of self government was inaugurated and religious toleration was enforced to its fullest extent. Thus, far back in the early 1600's, a Calvert established in the New World many of the freedoms we are fighting for today.

Victoria Officer Rewarded For Leading Counter-Attack

OTTAWA, Nov. 7 (CP).—Citations covering the award of the Distinguished Service Order to six Canadian officers for gallantry during the Allied invasion of France were announced today by defence headquarters.

The awards, announced last Aug- [illegible] Gault Blackader, 46, Montreal; Lieutenant-Colonel D. S. Buell, 38, Kingston, Ont.; Lieutenant-Colonel F. N. Cabeldu, 36, Victoria, B.C.; Lieutenant-Colonel R. J. Coldwell, 44, Halifax; Lieutenant-Colonel F. M. Matheson, 40, Prince Albert, Sask., and Lieutenant-Colonel J. O. Spragge, 37, London, Ont., and Toronto.

Colonel Cabeldu personally led a counter-attack that restored a position his unit had lost after landing at Putot-en-Bessin. For the ensuing seven days, his men held the position against several counter-attacks and under almost continuous mortar fire.

Colonel Matheson led the defence which resulted in the destruction of five enemy tanks that attacked battalion headquarters.

"The battalion commanded by this officer carried out the initial assault on June 6, 1944. They reached the brigade objective on June 7, and from that time onwards until June 11, fought off many counter-attacks.

"The fighting spirit, tenacity and high morale of this unit can be ascribed to the cool-headed and inspiring leadership of Lieutenant-Colonel Matheson. In particular, on the night of June 8-9, when the battalion headquarters was attacked by Mark V tanks and infantry, he personally led the defence which resulted in the destruction of five enemy tanks."

Colonel Buell, officer commanding one of the assault battalions, ran into stiff opposition and communications with his brigade were finally broken.

"But he pressed on and showed great determination to carry out his commander's intention, thereby [illegible] of the operation," the citation said.

Ask Eradication Of Terrorists

JERUSALEM, Nov. 7 (AP).—The Jewish Agency for Palestine and the General Council of Palestine Jews today called for eradication of a terrorist band charged with murdering Lord Moynes, British resident-minister in the Middle East, in Cairo.

"This revolting crime," the agency and council said in a joint statement, "committed outside the boundaries of our country under circumstances not yet cleared up, raises anew the growing danger of continued existence of a terrorist gang inside Palestine. Terrorism in Palestine is calculated to wreck the chances of our political struggle and destroy our internal peace."

SEARCHING INQUIRIES WILL BE MADE

LONDON, Nov. 7 (CP).—Prime Minister Churchill told the House of Commons today "very searching inquiries" would be made into the assassination yesterday of Lord Moynes, British minister resident at Cairo.

Parliament and the country, Mr. Churchill said, had suffered a "very heavy loss" to the death of Lord Moynes.

Mr. Churchill said that he had no official information giving a clue as to the motives for the assassination or fixing its authorship. He added Lord Moynes had devoted himself this year to a solution of the Zionist problem, and that the Jews in Palestine "had rarely lost a better or more well-informed friend."

OFFICIALS BLAME JEWISH TERRORISTS

CAIRO, Nov. 7 (AP).—Jewish terrorists assassinated Lord Moyne, British resident minister in the Middle East yesterday, officials said today.

Their motive was not known. Lord Moyne's duties were concerned almost exclusively with relations between Britain and Egypt and did not cover other problems to the Middle East.

King Farouk visited the hospital before Lord Moyne died. Funeral arrangements have not been completed, but a state funeral probably will be held. Lord Moyne was 64.

Lord Moyne was shot down as he alighted from his automobile here and died in an army hospital. His chauffeur was killed instantly.

One of the gunmen was shot by an Egyptian constable and the other was captured nearby.

Lord Moyne was born Walter Edward Guinness in Dublin in 1880 and was a member of the family which manufactures the famous Guinness stout.

Three British officials arrived from Palestine to investigate the assassination.

Police said the prisoners, speaking in Hebrew, told them "We are saying nothing. We are waiting for court." Their names were not disclosed immediately. A hearing is expected soon.

Views Transport As Army Carrier

CHICAGO, Nov. 7 (CP).—It is as a carrier of armies and not as a potential military aircraft that the civil transport plane constitutes a threat to security in the future, Lord Swinton, British Minister of Civil Aviation, said in an interview [illegible]

The chief British delegate to the International Conference on Civil Aviation said considerations of security were among the reasons the British Government favors regulation of international civil air transport.

Lord Swinton was replying to passages in the speech delivered by A. A. Berle, Jr., head of the United States delegation at the opening of the conference. Mr. Berle had discounted security aspects by saying a civil transport plane could not readily be converted into a bomber.

Lord Swinton said: "A bomber cannot capture a city or a country, although it may do a lot of damage, but an airborne division can."

It was not the bombing of Rotterdam which knocked Holland out of the war, but German troops carried in hundreds of standard German transport planes. The British airborne force which landed at Arnheem did a lot of good and just missed a complete success which would have shortened the war by months. Standard American transport planes are carrying troops all over the world.

"The armies of the future are going to be carried by air and in planes very much like civil transport planes," he said.

Hence every country for its own security would want to have and operate civil transport planes and any workable international arrangement must provide for a division of traffic.

1,000 Cigarettes Annually for Every Person in Country

OTTAWA, Nov. 7 (CP).—Canadian cigarette consumption now is at the rate of about 1,000 a year for every man, woman and child, and shipments to the armed forces overseas run at the rate of about 3,000,000,000 annually, with 250,000 pounds of cut tobacco thrown in for good measure.

Norman A. Macrae, technical adviser to the Prices Board, said that after the war, with little expansion to farm equipment, Canadian growers could produce under normal conditions sufficient tobacco to meet domestic requirements plus 20,000,000 to 30,000,000 pounds for export, provided they are prepared to compete with foreign leaf abroad in respect to quality and price.

President Roosevelt

The return of President Roosevelt for a fourth term seemed assured last evening, as results from one of the largest polls in its history indicated how the United States had voted. Conceding to the American people their right to choose their own leaders, this result will be one that will be welcomed sincerely throughout the United Nations, and nowhere more warmly than in Canada. President Roosevelt took an early lead in the returns, and whatever the final composition of the United States Senate and House of Representatives, it seemed certain that he would be his country's spokesman in the peace. Apart from all political lines, there will be no little world rejoicing today that this happy warrior will carry his shield to the end. As a great American and a world leader, he has earned that; a result which assures, too, the least interruption with the prosecution of the war to a speedy and lasting peace.

On purely domestic issues there was no doubt that President Roosevelt had lost some ground. One has only to cross the international border to learn how strongly sets the tide against multiple presidential terms; how far distant and removed now seems the original structure of the New Deal. There were, too, the cross currents of isolationism—not yet dead in spite of these times—and of the normal swing of political pendulums from one side of the rostrum to the other. All of these factors served as a handicap to President Roosevelt at the polls yesterday. Yet, in spite of them, he has demonstrated that he holds the confidence of the vast preponderance of citizens in the United States.

We have said that Canada will be happy in that result. By that we mean that, all politics aside, Mr. Roosevelt has earned the trust and confidence of this nation, as indeed he has done of the civilized world. He is not the first great president of a great nation, but President Roosevelt, like Prime Minister Churchill and Premier Stalin, has made himself an integral part of the times. The fact that he has been "drafted for service" again in an unprecedented fourth term is today one of the bright and encouraging reassurances in the world war. Mr. Dewey and his party made a good fight, but Mr. Roosevelt at the moment belongs to the world. We have no doubt but that this unique honor will be held in the highest trust.

Earl of Strathmore

Any sorrow that affects the Royal Household affects the British Empire directly, for it is to Their Majesties that all British countries have looked for, and have found, a brave and a kindly example in the stress of war. The death of the Earl of Strathmore, father of Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth, even at the ripe age of 89 years, will cast its shadow over what might otherwise have been one of the brightest of Christmases for the Royal Family since the outbreak of the present world conflict.

Her Majesty will have with her in this hour the humble and heartfelt sympathies of countless millions of people in all walks of life. The lights that have only just gone on again in Great Britain, the new-found freedom from enemy air attack, the clear and unmistakable heralds of full and final victory in the war, all of these happier circumstances today will stand in more sombre relief.

Canada will share in that expression unreservedly, not alone in tribute to the memory of a gallant Scot, but also in remembrance of Their Majesties' gracious visit to this land and of a regard that was implanted then only to grow and become yet more valuable with each passing day. Canada's fighting men, the Canadian First Army in Holland and our units fighting in Italy, will wish to be represented at the funeral; but, beyond that, it is an Empire that in spirit will be there.

What About the People?

General McNaughton may talk until he is black in the face about the idyllic theories of voluntary service, but the fact remains that it is Prime Minister King's duty to give some explanation to the people of this country as to what he proposes to do with powers he asked them for two years ago, and which they granted him. Mr. King said expressly that his hands had been tied by pre-election promises, and that he wished them freed so that he might act. The people absolved him of the promises, and gave him full authority to bring in conscription, which was already in force in nearly all British lands.

For more than two years Canada's manpower has been considered officially as a "problem." There is a clear road out, that is the draft system. The people are asking that it be implemented now. The fighting men overseas are demanding it. The veterans of the last and earlier wars are demanding it. Eight of the nine Provinces in Canada have endorsed it long ago. Now Col. Ralston returns from the battlefields and presumably tells Mr. King that. Mr. King takes off his Defence Minister's political head, and names a new Defence Minister. Meanwhile, what about the peoples' will? Is that to be ignored?

This country has a serious crisis on its hands. It will not be solved by silence from Mr. King, nor by continued lack of action. The contempt with which the Ottawa Administration has already treated the people can be overlooked if Mr. King will do the sensible thing now. Will he act, or will be continue to leave this crisis to puppets, washing his hands of the whole affair? Canada's honor abroad and her peace at home are at stake. The people are demanding that Mr. King face this issue here and now. It is his responsibility. He must speak. He must act!

Unexplained Attack

The assassination of Lord Moyne, British resident Minister in the Middle East, outside of his Cairo quarters this week remains to be explained officially. Two assailants were captured, one shot by the Egyptian state police. The Egyptian Government have issued a formal statement disclaiming connection by Egyptian nationals with the outrage. Until more is known of the affair it cannot be discussed intelligently.

The murder is evidence, of course, of feeling that must be running high in some quarter. One can scarcely conceive of personal reasons for the slaying of a member of the diplomatic service in this fashion. Assassination is a desperate, unbalanced act. It is usually passion carried to its highest degree. One wonders what political passions can be running so high that the death of a British Minister in the Middle East is conspired and brought about, for British prestige and influence were never greater in the Mediterranean than at present.

Time, no doubt, will supply the reason for this savage, unreasoning act. Meanwhile, Lord Moyne — Walter Edward Guinness — has paid for his service to the British Empire with his life. Long in public service, he was highly regarded; the member of an outstanding Irish family, and one that ever has been loyal to the British connection. It is generally a lost cause that descends to assassination, and no cause is ever benefited by it. The world will regret the passing of a brave man, the victim of an insane or unprincipled action.

There Is Always a Way

The will makes the way, today as ever throughout human days. Except in cases of indigency—and there are not many such in Canada—the purchase of a Victory Bond is fairly within the reach of nearly all Canadians. If the individual cannot buy it for cash, he can through deferred payments on time. A few cents a day saved now may lead to dollars in hand in the future, when these dollars will have their full peacetime value. Canada needs these dollars, needs every idle dollar that is not already pulling its weight in the war. There are four days left in which the public can act.

Consider the world as it stands today. Greece is rejoicing over a reborn freedom not yet a week old. The Netherlands has 1,200 square miles that have now been wrested from the hands of the aggressors. France is being reclaimed from war, from civil unrest, from human hardships that can hardly be realized outside of its own soil. Fear, like a dark cloud, is lifting from Switzerland, tossed in the hurricane for more than five years. Cities lie black and burned to their cellars. Families have been divided all over the face of the globe. There has been more human misery in five years than the world has known in 500 years previously. Yet Canada has escaped most of that.

While we have our land, our freedom, our homes, and our own way of life, we should never forget that we retain these precious things by virtue of the fight that is being waged in our name. Our young men are in it, and giving a magnificent account of themselves in contact with the foe. Many have died. Others will carry war disabilities to the end of their days. Not a few have been wounded and returned to action once and twice over. We are asked at home simply to invest, to lend Canada our idle dollars now. It is not much to ask. It is not much to do. There are four days left in which we can attend to the first tasks of true citizenship—supporting one country in war. Buy Victory Bonds today. Where there is a will, there is always a way!

Seen in Passing

Self-glorification is the most useless burden of all the human pack. What a man is was begun by his family many generations ago. It is conditioned by geography and environment, by chance and a mere flipping of a coin. It is moulded by circumstances as often as the reverse may be the case. If all that were not enough, what a man is depends first as last upon the will of Providence.

From "Night Thoughts"

Tired Nature's sweet restorer, balmy Sleep!
He, like the world, his ready visit pays
Where Fortune smiles; the wretched he forsakes,
Swift on his downy pinion flies from woe,
And lights on lids unsullied with a tear.
From short (as usual) and disturbed repose
I wake: how happy they who wake no more!
Yet that were vain if dreams infest the grave
I wake, emerging from a sea of dreams
Tumultuous; where my wrecked desponding thought
From wave to wave of fancied misery
At random drove, her helm of reason lost.
Though now restored, 'tis only change of pain—
A bitter change—severer for severe.
The day too short for my distress, and night
E'en in the zenith of her dark domain,
Is sunshine to the color of my fate.

Book Craftsmen

Frank M. Kelley

Someone wrote long ago "Blessings be upon the head of Cadmus, the Phoenicians or whoever it was invented books." That was a well-considered blessing, one which most human beings who appreciate what written words in books of merit have meant to mankind, up to the present anyway, will re-echo whole-heartedly.

Well, someone else, if you recall, has also said, "Of the making of books there is no end." That is good. A continual flow of books, whether or not the individual effort measures up to the world's best literature, is purely of an instructive character or mainly serves to by-pass a troubled hour, is in keeping with our democratic pattern of life. Man needs a leaven in his mental food and the wealth of good books supply it.

True, all books are not widely read. Choosing the mental fare for the people must be a fascinating business, with the gambling element always present. Which brings us to the men who sponsor the books—the publishers. There are a good many, big and little, book publishers in the United States and Canada. They are mainly centred in New York. One would hardly expect to find a flourishing publishing house west of Chicago, and the last place the seeker would probably look for a publisher of well-made and high-class books would be the State of Idaho, where there really happens to be the only recognized book publishers west of the Mississippi River.

BOOKS FOR BOOKLOVERS

Caldwell, Idaho, is the home of Caxton Printers, book publishers, who evidently believe the material that is worth printing in book form is worthy of expert craftsmanship in its makeup. The Caxton Printers, who collaborate with leading American and Canadian publishers to issue works of merit, as well as publish on their own account, turn out as fine an article of book for sale as can be produced anywhere, as samples coming for review readily prove. These are really books for booklovers.

Hardly the location where you would look for the development of a successful publishing business, yet James Gipson, a printer with ideas, established himself in Caldwell in 1903, opening a small printshop there in that year. Caldwell was, and still is, a long way from what you would call a big city. First bid for fortune was the publication of a farm paper. Subsequently school textbooks were published. The firm prospered. By the late twenties the son of the founder began to think of a wider field and sought promising writing talent throughout Idaho, with the object of putting the writings into book form.

In a recent review of the Caxton Printers in "Adventures in Business," the younger Mr. Gipson gives some of the reasons why the Idaho publishing house embarked on the real business of book publishing. "We knew how hard it had always been for new writers, particularly from the West, to find publishers, even when they seemed to be doing worth-while work.

"It was with the idea of giving such writers assistance that we first began to publish. It seemed to us that America should have at least one house that might be classified as non-commercial—one publisher who was not dependent upon revenue from his publishing venture for its support. But probably the real reason was that all of us love books and wanted to have some part in making them."

FIRST SUCCESSFUL BOOK

First of the Caxton books to attain wide interest was "In Tragic Life," which Eastern publishers did not fancy when the manuscript was offered them. Under the Caxton imprint the story became a success. Joint publishing contracts for "In Tragic Life" and some other titles since 1931 have linked the Caxton name with one of the East's greatest publishing firms, giving the Caldwell publishers national recognition and some needed prestige. Publishing five books in 1928, the firm put out 31 in 1938. It now plans to limit its book output to 26, or less, per year.

President Gipson, of Caxton Printers, believes, "If there is anything that is really worth-while in this mad jumble we call civilization it should be books." His idea, so he states, has always been that a good many books may have unusual merit but small sales possibilities during the author's lifetime. "Those are the things that we've been looking for and that we intend to keep looking for."

The time used is Pacific Standard for the 120th Meridian west. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours, from midnight to midnight. The figures for height serve to distinguish high water from low water. Where blanks occur in the table, the tide rises or falls continuously during two successive tidal periods without turning.

To find the depth of water on the sill of the Esquimalt Drydock at any time, add 30.0 feet to the height of high water as above given.

Observation Car

By G.B.

After meditating for three weeks, Albert decided last Sunday to sacrifice nearly a month's supply of precious gasoline to participate in the famous sport fishing at Cowichan. On arrival at a likely stream, he unsuccessfully tried six kinds of flies, but a zero score marked the number of strikes. Next Albert dug some worms from a rotting log and impaled them on his hook. Still there were no bites. Albert commenced to think about the gasoline he had used on the trip, and the fact there were no fish stores open in Victoria on a Sunday. He spied a huckleberry bush and speedily jabbed several of the small red berries on his hook. No fish accepted the challenge. "I wonder who is the poor fish?" Albert mused aloud. He disgustedly picked a handful of huckleberries and tossed them into the stream. At that instant a burly individual in waders hove in sight, showed a warden's badge, and caustically asked: "What did you throw in the stream? Not trying to use prohibited salmon eggs, are you?" Albert felt most uncomfortable until he was able to produce a few huckleberries from his pocket. The game warden rolled them between his fingers, sniffed, and remarked: "Humph. Huckleberries, all right," and splashed away in his waders. Albert opened a tin of sardines and dejectedly devoured them for lunch. . . . From The Breakfast Group, published in the interests of City Chapel, Inc., Seattle: "Juvenile Judge Samuel D. Tatum, Nashville, Tenn., tried 4,000 cases of youths under 17 years of age between June 1, 1936, and August, 1942. He found only 17 of the number attended Sunday school or church regularly, and of the 17, nine were found not guilty. Parents of only six boys among the 4,000 attended church regularly. More than 75 per cent of the boys were from broken homes. Advice to parents and guardians was to take children to Sunday school and church regularly."

Plan Joint Meeting

"The Open Road to Postwar Stability" will be the subject of George Miller, Montreal, director of the Canadian Forestry Association, when he addresses a joint meeting of the Rotary Club and Victoria Chamber of Commerce on November 18 at the Empress Hotel. Mr. Miller was a member of the editorial staff of The Montreal Star, and his writings have appeared in several British and United States publications.

Letters to the Editor

No letter to the editor will be inserted except over the proper signature and address of the writer. This rule admits of no exception. No letter should exceed 300 words in length. Unsolicited correspondence cannot be returned.

NATURE'S MYSTERIES

Sir,—I quote from the article, "Chats About the Stars." "In our breathless search for excitement, for novelty, we have become blind to the beauties of earth and sky and sea that surround us."

There are many like the Athenians of Paul's day, who spend their time searching for something new and unusual. In what avenues do they search? Often they kick, or throw or hit a ball precisely as they did last week or last year. Or they see a show, or read a novel which is essentially the same as hundreds that they have seen or read previously, and is the production of someone with a mentality not greatly unlike their own. And all round them are innumerable things that would be really new to them, about which they now know little or nothing. For instance, I am told there are at least 10,000 kinds of birds and 100,000 varieties of insects, each with a distinct and often exciting life history of its own, not to mention all marine and plant life, the wonders of chemistry, physics, geology, astronomy, etc. I have never heard of anyone who could explain exactly how a piece of bread becomes a brain cell that thinks. All eternity will not suffice for the complete study of all the mysteries of Nature. Yet many prefer to proceed in circles in an artificial and superficial world of their own. They are always looking for something new, yet never find it, because they will not look in the places where new things are fairly crying out to be investigated. It is a queer world.

Not Joining Time Change Campaign

VANCOUVER, Nov. 7 (CP).—Vancouver City Council has indicated it has no intention of taking part in an agitation for the return of standard time while daylight saving time continues in force across the country.

Langley Council favors return of standard time and has so notified Premier John Hart. City Council when advised of this action decided merely to "receive and file" the letter, but to notify Langley it is giving consideration to the question.

Mayor J. W. Cornett indicated he felt as many people do that daylight saving should be left in effect while there is a war on.

Highway First on Provincial Plans

VANCOUVER, Nov. 7 (CP).—Completion of the Hope-Princeton Highway will be the number one project for the Provincial Department of Public Works immediately after the war, Premier John Hart announced at Princeton during his recent Okanagan tour.

The money was available and work would be started on the road immediately the war was over, the Premier said when he arrived here tonight.

Returning to Victoria at the weekend following visits to Vernon, Kelowna, Penticton, Oliver and Princeton, the Premier will remain here Wednesday to attend a meeting of directors of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway.

Victoria Boys' Band

Victoria Boys' Band will hold a concert in the Chamber of Commerce Auditorium next Monday night at 8 o'clock. Several local artists will assist.

Oppose Policy On Volunteers

Consensus of opinion yesterday among veterans in Victoria showed a definite stand against the policy of volunteer service for overseas duty as expressed by General A. G. L. McNaughton, Minister of National Defence.

Lieut.-General E. C. Ashton, for-retired, said he was reserving judgment. "I am not sufficiently informed at the present time to have a definite opinion," he said. "Although General McNaughton has surprised people with his stand, I can not help but feel that a man of his calibre and type and a soldier with a brilliant record must have some good reason for his present policy."

A somewhat similar view was expressed by Colonel Ross Napier, president, Red Cap Overseas Association of Vancouver Island, who said: "It has always been the opinion of the Red Caps-one and all-opinion too-that conscription should have been enforced from the start and that, if the wishes of the people, who voted in favor of it, had been carried out, we would not have had this trouble. However, until all the facts are made clear, I would not like to go into further detail. No doubt some definite stand will be taken at our annual meeting, which will be held this evening."

Lieut.-Colonel Thomas Moore, manager of Prince Robert House, was of the opinion that no one should be maintained in the Home Defence Army who are physically able to serve overseas. "Three men," he said, "are living off the fat of the land. I wonder what the reaction would be if the men who have volunteered to do the fighting and have been doing it, would now volunteer to come home."

WOULD WELCOME CHANCE TO FIGHT

Believing that "it was too late to try psychology on the home defence troops," Major J. R. Mellitor, officer commanding Victoria Company of the Veterans' Guard (Reserve), declared, "In the last war I helped to train thousands of conscripts and the nearer they came to battle the keener they were. Personally I think that most of the home defence troops would secretly welcome a chance to play a man's part."

Opinions of representatives of Women's Auxiliaries varied on the possibility of home leave for overseas troops before Christmas.

Mrs. Bean, president, Women's Auxiliary of the Britannia Branch: "It will be wonderful to see them again. I think that some of the home defence troops should take their place."

Mrs. B. J. McDonald, president, Women's Auxiliary, 1st Battalion, Canadian Scottish: "Christmas leave sounds like an age-assessment policy. If they haven't enough reinforcements how can they bring the boys home?"

Mrs. J. Moffat, president, Army and Navy Veterans' Auxiliary: "I am for universal conscription. The troops who have been overseas for several years are entitled to get home for Christmas."

Mrs. W. P. Trace, president, Women's Auxiliary, Pro Patria Branch: "Home leave for Christmas would be nice. Just the same I think a lot of the boys who want to stay where they are and finish the job."

Editor of London Times Dies at 70

LONDON, Nov. 7 (CP) — Geoffrey Dawson, 70, editor of The London Times for two periods, 1912-19 and 1923-41, died today.

As editor of the authoritarian Times, often the voice of the British Government on matters of high international importance, Mr. Dawson probably was the most influential journalist in Britain.

He was educated at Eton and Oxford University and at the end of the last century became an official at the Colonial Office. From 1901-1905 he was private secretary to Lord Milner in South Africa, and then for five years edited The Johannesburg Star.

He was a former secretary and trustee of the Rhodes Trust.

His widow, one son and two daughters survive.

Isaac Gelley Found Guilty

Isaac Gelley, 47-year-old pensioner of the last war, was found guilty by the Assize jury yesterday afternoon on a charge of gross indecency, the jury arriving at its verdict in 13 minutes. Sentence was reserved until the end of the Assizes.

The trial opened the Assize docket with brief appearance of the final prosecution witness, W. A. Rowley. Proceedings were interrupted for judge and jury to view the scene.

Only witness called by Stuart Henderson, defence counsel, was the accused man. He denied the charge unequivocally.

Mr. Henderson argued the case presented by the prosecution was "largely imagination instead of the truth." He suggested the original information upon which police acted was based on spite, or that the informant was shielding himself and that police in turn were shielding him. A man "of the intelligence of the accused" would, if guilty, have taken precautions against being seen, he argued.

Gordon A. Cameron, Crown prosecutor, denied Mr. Henderson's contention that Gelley would lose his pension if found guilty, saying it was his understanding that it would be stopped while a man was confined, but would continue afterwards. The case resolved itself, he argued, into a simple question of believing the evidence given by the prosecution or the denial of the charge by the accused.

Robot Attacks On U.S. Possible

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7 (CP)—The War and Navy Departments said today that robot bomb attacks by Germany on the United States are "entirely possible."

The departments said the question whether such attacks could be made had been raised in view of continuance of robot bomb use against Great Britain after destruction of launching platforms in France and the Low Countries.

In a joint statement, the departments asserted they "consider such attacks by Germany entirely possible."

Robot bombs, the departments said, "might be launched from submarines lying offshore or from one-way sacrifice flights of long-range bombers committed across the Atlantic by submarines. It is also possible that attacks might be launched from catapult plane tenders."

The statement said

"It is extremely doubtful that such attacks could entirely elude Allied sea and air patrols. Reasonable measures are in force to protect the country. However, as has previously been stated, with respect to the possibility of sporadic enemy air attacks on our shores, it is impossible to insure that such an attack will be completely frustrated.

"Any such attacks could have no great military effectiveness and could only serve to stimulate the nation still further in its determined prosecution of the war."

More Cars—A total of 4,261 automobiles, bearing United States license plates, entered Canada between January to the end of October, compared with 2,861 for the same period to 1943, according to figures provided the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau by O. IS IT SIMPLY NEWS TO YOU?

Do you see . . . behind the headlines . . . our boys in the thick of it?

Do you hear . . . the voice of a wounded boy you used to know calling to the stretcher-bearers?

Is it just news, that you read with your breakfast or on your chesterfield at night?

It isn't news to them . . . it's hell!

From a bullet-spattered trench all they can see is a few yards of blackened, blasted earth, strewn with the bodies of those boys you used to know . . . their chums . . . the dying and the dead!

All they know is that this bit of ridge must be taken, this river must be crossed, this last machine-gun nest must be silenced.

Do you ever figure what it costs to hold each bit of ridge . . . to cross each tiny river? . . . Lives! Lives! More Lives!

Weapons help!

Weapons save lives!

Keep sending them!

Send more this time than ever before!

And when you buy that extra bond . . . a little grudgingly, maybe? . . . think of what those chaps over there have parted with . . . perhaps for ever!

Music and Rainbow Colors Create Vivid Fashion Show

"I hope no one goes home with money in his or her pockets," Mrs Nancy Hodges, M.L.A., told throngs who gathered at the Crystal Garden yesterday afternoon for the Solarium Junior League glittering fashion show and bazaar, "Where the Rainbow Ends." In officially opening the [illegible] members on their splendid work for the crippled children and wished them every success. Proceeds of the bazaar and show and of the tea and dance following will go to the Queen Alexandra Solarium.

A lovely rainbow arch, against a blue velvet drop, formed an entrance for the models. Rainbow music throughout, reviving tunes like "Singing in the Rain," "On the Sunny Side of the Street" and "Lilacs in the Rain," created a lively pace for the charming mannequins. As the "story with the happy ending" unfolded, spectators saw Hope, portrayed by Mrs H G McCullough, and Faith, in the personage of Mrs. Noel Morgan, with their six attendants in storm clothes, showing the latest styles in raincoats, reversibles and corduroys; clothes promising sunshine, revealing all the pastels of the season in angora and gabardine wools and crepes, and rainbow hues in vivid red, blue, indigo, green and orchid. Extra fashions were shown between each scene. Mrs. June Beavan commented on fashions and told the story of the Rainbow Show.

Before each scene, dances by members of the Florence Clough Dancing Academy were presented, entitled, "Dance of the Raindrops," "Rainbow Valse" and "Sunny Rhythm". In the first scene, "After the Storm," Mrs. McCullough sang "I'll Walk Alone"; in the second, [illegible] recalled "Over the Rainbow," and in the finale, the chorus, consisting of models Mrs. P H. Brown, Mrs. G J. Scott, Mrs A W E. Pitkethley, Mrs. J. Scaplen, Mrs. I. McCallum, Mrs. R. G. McCullough, Mrs. Noel Morgan and Miss Pat Pendray, and eight ratings of the Royal Canadian Navy joined in singing "What a Difference a Day Made." Following the tableaux by the dancers, they appeared in "Sweethearts on Parade."

Bazaar stalls, decorated in the rainbow scheme, offered novelty bracelets, necklaces, colorful drawstring bags, baby sets in woolen bonnets, booties and jackets, aprons in peasant style, handbags, compacts and pictures. Jams and jellies proved popular with visitors, as did the toy stall.

Rainbow Frolic committee consisted of: General convener, Mrs. R. G McCullough; revue production, Mrs. R Beavan, revue direction, Mrs. P. H. Brown; decorations, Mrs J Dunn; publicity, Mrs. C H. Miller, and games, Mrs. G. F Dunn. Accompanist for the fashion show was Grace McLeod Hill, and for the dancing, Mrs. C. C. Cook.

Married W.D.'s To Be Released

OTTAWA, Nov. 7 (CP). — Married members of the Royal Canadian Air Force (Women's Division) will be released to civilian life under a discharge plan now being initiated, Air Force Headquarters said today.

With the end of recruiting for the R.C.A.F. and closing of many training schools of the British Commonwealth Air Training Plan many of the jobs done by W.D.'s have ended and there now is need to cut down the number of personnel.

An estimated 10 per cent of the W.D.'s are married, mostly to servicemen, many of whom are or will be returning from overseas, and it is felt these girls should have the chance to set up housekeeping.

Up to now marriage has not been a reason for discharge.

Exception to the discharge plan will be made for widows, who have been reclassified as "single," and on compassionate grounds for girls who have special reasons for remaining in the service.

Oldest of the three Canadian women's services, the R.C.A.F. (W.D.) was formed in July, 1941, and stopped recruiting last June when its numbers reached 18,800.

Roosevelt

but with more than half the total vote counted Roosevelt led in 34 states with an electoral vote of 395 where only 266 are necessary to win.

Dewey had carried only 14 states with an electoral vote of 136 when he told a group of correspondents gathered in the ballroom of his New York hotel that it was all over, and expressed his congratulations to the winner.

The vote-winning ability of Franklin Delano Roosevelt had again turned the trick and brought him a fresh mandate from the people to carry on the tremendous tasks of war and peace in which he is engaged with leaders of the Allied powers.

Seemed certain, too, that the President would have a strong Democratic majority in the House of Representatives and increase or maintain the substantial Democratic majority which already existed in the Senate.

Glamorous Clare Booth Luce, one of the bitterest Roosevelt baiters in the House, seemed headed for defeat early in the Connecticut voting, but later pulled ahead of her Republican opponent, Margaret Connors.

HAMILTON FISH IS ELIMINATED

In gaining eight former Republican House seats the Democrats eliminated the veteran Rep. Hamilton Fish who had been criticized by President Roosevelt and Gov. Dewey alike.

Gov. John Bricker of Ohio, Republican Vice-Presidential candidate, held his state for his party but the Democratic Vice-Presidential candidate, Senator Harry S. Truman of Missouri failed to win that state which seemed certain to give its 15 electoral votes to the Republicans.

Governor Dewey won in his own New York home district of Pawling where he has a farm, and in President Roosevelt's Hyde Park district.

Early morning returns showed a slowly increasing Roosevelt popular vote lead. He was way out in front in the Southern States, and in most of the Far West, while Gov. Dewey was clinging to most New England States and a number in the corn belt of the Mid-West.

Maine and Vermont gave their votes to the Republican ticket as they did in the previous Roosevelt elections.

New York, home state of both candidates, with 47 electoral votes, gave an early and surprising upstate lead to Roosevelt, but it quickly shifted to Dewey and the trend was Republican.

Michigan, which gave the Republicans a slender majority in 1940 went heavily for Dewey in the rural areas but promised a photo-finish when Detroit's votes were all counted.

Democratic candidates were leading in four states now having Republican incumbents, but Senator Sam Jackson was running behind Republican candidate Ralph Gates in Indiana, where Democrats have been governor since the start of the New Deal.

Five Southern Democrats had been elected to the Senate.

Republican Senator Aiken of Vermont, leader in the move to speed up the St. Lawrence waterways project, was re-elected.

House elections (the whole Chamber of 435 to be elected) showed 73 Democrats certain of their seats, including two gains from Republicans. The Democrats at present have only 214 seats in the House to 212 Republicans, four representing minor parties and five vacancies.

If the early trend were carried through to the final count a Democratic controlled Congress seemed assured.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8 (Wednesday) (AP).—President Roosevelt won New York's 47 electoral votes, forging safely ahead early today in tabulation of unofficial returns after trailing most of the night.

EIGHT REPUBLICAN SEATS ARE LOST

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8 (Wednesday) (CP).—Eight seats in the House of Representatives held by Republicans tumbled today to the Democratic forces as returns from yesterday's Congressional elections slowly poured in.

The Democrats, who had held a bare majority in the present House, the life of which ends this year, at an early hour today had elected 101 candidates to the Republicans' 13. The Republicans have 212 members in the present House. One American Labor candidate had been elected, leaving 350 seats in doubt.

Among the Republican strongholds that fell to the Democrats was that of New York's 29th District where Representative Hamilton Fish conceded the election of his opponent, Augustus W. Bennet.

Fish, who had berated Administration policy in foreign affairs and whose record in turn was criticized both by President Roosevelt and Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, Republican Presidential nominee, was eliminated after 24 years' service in the House.

Glamorous Clare Booth Luce (Rep., Conn.), who had trailed in early returns, took a commanding lead later from her opponent, Miss Margaret E. Connors, 28-year-old Bridgeport lawyer put up by the Democrats to offset Mrs. Luce's famed wit and other vote-getting attributes.

EIGHT OF NEEDED 13 SEATS ASSURED

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8 (Wednesday) (CP).—Eight of 13 seats needed by the Democrats to retain control of the treaty-ratifying Senate were assured early today.

Looking toward peace and creation of a world security organization, the importance of congressional control was stressed by both parties in the election campaign. Senator Harry S. Truman, President Roosevelt's running mate, called for the defeat of eight Republican Senators he dubbed "isolationists." One he named, Gerald Nye, of North Dakota, was trailing.

Among democratic Senators returned were Majority Leader Alben Barkley, of Kentucky, and Senator Millard Tydings, of Maryland. The solid south sent up six Democratic Senators early in the count, and in equally short order Vermont returned Republican Senator George D. Aiken. Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Louisiana, North Carolina and South Carolina were solidly in the Democratic fold.

Democratic nominees were pressing Republican senatorial incumbents in Connecticut, North Dakota and Pennsylvania on the basis of incomplete returns. Republicans grasped for seats now held by Democrats in Iowa, Missouri and New Jersey.

The Democrats held 58 of the 96 Senate seats in the present Congress, with 49 necessary for a majority, and under the constitutional practice whereby one-third of the chamber is elected every two years, have 36 "holdovers" who did not need to contest their seats. The Republicans held 37 seats in the present Congress with 24 holdovers.

CHEMISTRY SERVES CANADA

SULPHURIC ACID
Barometer of Business

SUCH is the importance of Sulphuric Acid to the many industrial processes now being carried on in Canada that the monthly record of its production could well be used as a barometer of the rise and fall of business.

Sulphuric Acid is extensively used in steel mills, foundries and similar plants whose volume of production is governed by the demands of construction, ship building, transportation and the engineering trades. These are the basic industries and their progress parallels the general trade statistics of the Dominion.

Another important use of Sulphuric Acid is in the manufacture and maintenance of storage batteries for cars, tanks, radio equipment and certain marine engines.

While Sulphuric Acid is only one of the many products of Canadian Industries Limited, it is an outstanding example of the way in which commercial chemistry is contributing to the life and progress of the Dominion.

For Bad Winter Coughs, Mix This Syrup at Home

Quick Relief. Big Saving. So Easy. No Cooking.

This well known recipe is used by many thousands of housewives, because they have found that it gives them an effective, dependable medicine for distressing winter coughs. It's so easy to mix—anyone can do it.

From any druggist, get 2½ ounces of Pinex, a special compound of proven ingredients, in concentrated form, well known for effect on throat membranes.

Then make a syrup by stirring two cups of granulated sugar and one cup of water a few moments, until dissolved. It's no trouble at all and takes but a moment. No cooking needed. (Or you can use corn syrup or liquid honey instead of sugar syrup.)

Put the Pinex into a 16 ounce bottle and add your syrup. This gives you 16 ounces of cough syrup, unusually quick-acting and dependable, and you get four times as much cough medicine for your money. It never spoils, and is very pleasant—children love it.

You'll be surprised by the way it takes hold of severe coughs, giving quick, satisfying relief. It loosens the phlegm, soothes the irritated membranes, and helps clear the air passages. Money refunded if it doesn't please in every way.

Canadian Effort Highly Praised

Canada's war effort and the railway service of the Dominion were highly praised by Edward F. Flynn, executive of the Great Northern Railroad, who spoke on "The Shores of Opportunity" at a Kiwanis Club luncheon in the Empress Hotel yesterday.

Before launching into his topic, Mr. Flynn spoke at some length on the part Canada was playing in the war, and had high praise for the work on the home front and the fighting effort of the Canadian services, dealing especially with great service rendered by the navy on convoy duty in the Atlantic. He predicted that after the war trade and co-operation between Canada and the United States would be even greater.

The speaker pointed out that owing to the great advances in research in recent years, especially in the field of chemistry, that the coming generations were faced with a great opportunity for a better world. His concise address and amusing anecdotes were well received by his audience.

Austin I. Curtis introduced the speaker, who was thanked on behalf of the Kiwanis Club by Darrel Spence. Forrest L. Shaw, president, was chairman.

Takes Issue With Defence Minister

MONTREAL, Nov. 7 (CP)—Senator C. C. Ballantyne, Progressive Conservative Leader in the Senate, said in a statement today that Defence Minister McNaughton was "totally incorrect" in saying at Arnprior, Ont., Sunday night that conscription had failed in the First Great War.

"The general must know that recruiting completely dried up in the last war towards the end of '17 and the beginning of '18," said Senator Ballantyne, who was Minister of Martime Fisheries and Naval Affairs in the Union Government of Sir Robert Borden in 1917.

"The Government of Sir Robert Borden was faced with a situation similar to what exists today—either impose conscription or desert and fail to reinforce our brave lads overseas.

"Conscription was not a failure by any means. Thousands were sent over and our Army Corps, 80,000 strong under General Currie, and all other units were kept fully up to strength until the last shot was fired."

ARENA CAMPAIGN GETS UNDER WAY

Victoria citizens who have continually expressed themselves as favoring the construction of a publicly-owned arena, have the opportunity of backing their words with action by subscribing the amount of their October and November light bills, which they will not have to pay, to the Citizens' Committee working in the interests of such a sports emporium for this city.

Mailing of 20,000 leaflets pointing out the need of an arena, and asking the support of citizens, has commenced, and offices have been opened at the Eagles Home, 751 View Street, where contributions will be received.

Ultimate success of the arena plan appears to rest entirely with the campaign originated by the Citizens' Committee, which has guaranteed to hand over to the city the sum of $65,000 towards construction of the proposed arena. The City Council has made provision for submitting a by-law to the ratepayers asking if they are agreeable to the borrowing of $150,000 for financing such a project, but this is all contingent on the ability of the Citizens' Committee to raise its money. Members of that committee feel certain their plan will succeed. The challenge now rests with the citizens.

ORCHIDS TO LOCAL SOCCER OFFICIALS

We pass the orchids today to the officials and members of the Victoria and District Football League for their sporting gesture in giving up Royal Athletic Park to the Canadian Football League for their international game here on November 18 with Blaine, Wash.

Brother Reilly headed a delegation of Canadian football officials who waited on the soccer moguls and placed before them their request for use of Royal Athletic Park. Faced with a heavy guarantee, and confident the Caledonia Avenue playing field would best serve their purpose, the gridders sought co-operation of the soccer people, and received it.

Charlie Lewis, hard-working president of the Victoria and District Football League, and his colleagues are to be congratulated on their action. Co-operation between sports organizations is, in our opinion, the best for all concerned. We know that Brother Reilly and his associates, who are doing a grand job against great obstacles, will appreciate the stand taken by the soccer officials and at some future date reciprocate in full.

SNAPSHOTS

Variety is the spice of life, according to the old adage, and Ivan Temple, hockey, tennis and badminton player and one of the organizers and workers in the Victoria Minor Hockey Association, is getting a little variety these days. Still busy with his hockey stars of tomorrow, Temple finds time to coach the Hudson's Bay girls' basketball club and, in his own words, is enjoying his new athletic chore. . . . Charlie Lewis, president of the Victoria and District Football League, is our nominee for the honors of contributing most to the help of the up-and-coming young soccer player. In addition to heading the senior circuit, Lewis is president of the Lower Island Junior and Juvenile Football Association and manages two juvenile soccer teams. Congratulations, Mr. Lewis, on a job well done.

Schriner Howe Top Scorers

Share Lead in N.H.L. Scoring

MONTREAL, Nov. 7 (CP)—The blistering scoring pace that Toronto's Schriner-Carr-Bodnar line has been setting in the National Hockey League was reflected in the first weekly official scoring list today with the Toronto trio holding down three of the first four places.

At that, the high-powered Torontonians were just a shade ahead of Detroit's Howe-McAtee-Bruneteau combination.

Sweeney Schriner was tied with Syd Howe for top spot, each with 11 points, while the two other members of the Maple Leaf line were tied for third spot with ten points each. Mud Bruneteau held down fifth spot with nine points, two ahead of Boston's perennial Bill Cowley and three ahead of linemate, Jud McAtee.

Toronto Fans Like McCool

TORONTO, Nov. 7 (CP)—Frank McCool, of the Toronto Maple Leafs, is the only sports writer playing in the National Hockey League, but if he were assigned to write a story about himself, the modest native of Calgary would probably leave out anything boosting his hockey play.

"I've been pretty lucky so far," was the way the soft-spoken McCool today described his showing in the first four games in the N.H.L. in which nine goals have been scored against him in four games for an average of 2.250 a game. "None of our games yet have been tough."

But his goal-tending is gradually winning for him a warm place in the hearts of Toronto fans, quite ready to be critical of the successor to the agile Paul Bibeault who became a favorite last season through his sensational play.

They like the careful way the 26-year-old Irish-Canadian covers up the nets and the care he uses in clearing the puck. They first took to him when he held New York Rangers to one goal in the opening game of the season. Their confidence wavered somewhat when the Black Hawks scored five against him in a free-scoring game at Chicago. But he canceled their doubts completely by holding Canadiens to one goal at Montreal last Thursday on the eve of his 26th birthday.

Russian Team May Play in Victoria

MONTREAL, Nov. 7 (CP)—The Moscow Spartak Soccer Club may tour sections of Eastern Canada and the United States next Summer, with Montreal, Toronto and Hamilton mentioned as probable Canadian stop-offs, soccer officials said today.

Plans were still in a nebulous state, they said, but the Soviet Ambassador to Canada, G. N. Zarubin, is expected to visit Montreal shortly to discuss with officials of Stelco Soccer Club of Montreal. President Andrea Bell of Stelco says he is "considerably interested in the proposals."

P. J. Mulcahy, local football commissioner, after learning of the probable visit to Canada next Summer of the Moscow Spartak soccer team, said he would approach the British Columbia Football Association with a view to having the Russians play on the Pacific Coast, including Victoria. "Such tours not only help to build up interest in the game, but go a long way towards strengthening the bonds of international friendship," Commissioner Mulcahy added.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
Associated Press Sport Writer

NEW YORK, Nov. 7 (AP)—There's a football team in Pocatello, Idaho, that rates a cheer. . . . It's called the Pocatello Marine Devildogs and is composed of 20-odd marines from a guard detachment and a few sailors from the naval ordnance plant with a coach, Cpl. Ken Dolan, borrowed from an army air base. . . . These few marines comprise nearly half the detachment and every one is a combat veteran recuperating from wounds and jungle diseases incurred overseas. . . . They lost their first two games because there weren't enough reserves and the men weren't well enough to play a full game. . . . Then they turned on the Great Falls, Mont., air base team and won though they were outweighed 25 pounds a man. . . . Those guys must really like to play football.

Herb Pickard In Limelight

WITH CANADIANS IN ADRIATIC COASTAL FORCES, Nov. 7 (CP)—Most people in Western Canadian sporting circles a few years ago knew the name of Herb Pickard, of Winnipeg, an amateur golfer who showed signs of becoming one of the country's top notchers.

Pick, now 38, is a lieutenant in the Royal Canadian Navy in the Mediterranean and is a spare commanding officer with the famous 56th M.T.B. Flotilla while awaiting his return to Canada on leave. He became a spare commander when his boat was shot up while he was recovering from wounds.

Pick was mentioned in dispatches last January for his part in the first three actions the 56th fought. The flotilla sank about four or five German ships during these actions and damaged many others.

"But the most exciting action, from my standpoint, was before that," Pick said. "It was in December, one night when a couple of German destroyers were chased all the way from Corsica to Elba by some American torpedo boats. My boat was on patrol off Elba with some others, and we got signals that the destroyers were heading our way.

"We were just about 2,000 yards from the target when the moon came out and we were sitting out there as plain as day.

"The destroyers opened fire on us, and it was pretty thick. The torpedo boat fired his torpedoes and sheered off, then I fired mine. I don't think we got any hits, but the fire was getting so hot I turned and found that I was caught in a crossfire between the diversion boats and the destroyers. I was very pleased when I got out of all that."

Intercity Events On Holiday Card

Vancouver and Nanaimo Clubs to Oppose Locals Here on Saturday

Three intercity events are listed on the Armistice Day week-end sports menu, making it the most attractive offered Victoria sports followers this season.

Sharing the spotlight with Victoria soccer, Rugby and basketball clubs will be teams from Vancouver and Nanaimo, and with intercity rivalry increasing yearly, patrons are promised plenty of top flight entertainment.

Here is the complete program:

SATURDAY
FOOTBALL

11:00—Toppers vs. Oak Bay, Division Two, Juvenile League, Royal Athletic Park.

1.30—Black and Whites vs. Combines, Division Three, Juvenile League, Royal Athletic Park.

2.00—Army vs. Nanaimo, First Division, Royal Athletic Park.

RUGBY

3.00—University School vs. Brentwood College, exhibition game, Macdonald Park.

3.00—Victoria vs. Vancouver, McKechnie Cup, Macdonald Park.

BASKETBALL

7.30—Preliminary game.

8.30—University of British Columbia vs. Royal Canadian Air Force, senior "A" men, Victoria High School.

SUNDAY
FOOTBALL

2.30—Navy vs. Victoria Machinery Depot, First Division, Royal Athletic Park.

CANADIAN FOOTBALL

1.30—Army Cadets vs. Boilermakers, championship play-offs, Central Park.

3.00—Heaneys vs. St. Louis College, championship play-offs, Central Park.

The Rugby fixture at Macdonald Park between Victoria and Vancouver "Rep" fifteens will mark the locals' opening bid to retain possession of the McKechnie Cup, emblematic of the provincial championship.

Crimson Tide will field a light, fast squad, one that has been well drilled by Coaches Campbell Forbes and Sid Gaunt and is conceded an excellent opportunity of giving the Mainlanders quite a battle.

Vancouver, beaten 3-0 by the University of British Columbia in their season's debut, have made a number of changes in their line-up, in hopes of stopping the championship aspirations of the Victoria fifteen, present holders of the silverware.

The curtain raiser between University School and Brentwood College, which will be played on the lower field, brings together two smart fifteens, and followers of the oval ball pastime should witness a ding-dong struggle.

NANAIMO ELEVEN TO OPPOSE ARMY SQUAD

Feature attraction on the soccer program will be the Victoria and District Football League tilt between Nanaimo City and the Army at Royal Athletic Park.

Up-Islanders are sharing second place with the V.M.D. at this stage and will be out to take the troops into camp and take over undisputed occupation of that berth.

In their last meeting with the Army, which was at Nanaimo, the home side registered a 3-2 triumph on a penalty kick. Anxious to avenge this setback, the soldiers will trot out some new players for Saturday's match.

Royal Canadian Air Force hoopsters, their star-studded line-up intact from last season, will make their season's debut Saturday evening against the Varsity Thunderbirds at the Victoria High School gymnasium.

Flyers have been undergoing a number of stiff training sessions and are intent on opening their 1944-45 display with a victory over the students from the University of British Columbia.

Sunday's soccer fixture at Royal Athletic Park will bring together the Navy and Victoria Machinery Depot, while at Central Park Canadian football clubs will open their championship play-downs with a double bill.

Commit Two Army Sergeants For Trial on Theft Charges

Allowing the entry in preliminary hearing of statements made by Constable H. D. A. Brabant, R.C.M.P., Magistrate H. C. Hall in city police court yesterday committed Sgt. William Edgas Logan and [illegible] for trial on two charges of theft of automotive parts from the Woollen Mills army spare parts section.

Robert D. Harvey and A. J. Patton, defence counsel, made application to have the statements not admitted. Mr. Harvey said the onus was on the Crown to show that a statement had been made entirely voluntarily, and declared that this had not been proved. He cited rulings made in a number of court cases.

S. A. Keeble, Wilson & Cabeldu, Ltd., sales manager, testified on the second charge that Sgt. Connell had offered an engine assembly for sale in May, 1943, stating it was his own property. Mr. Keeble said he paid $73 by cheque, and Sgt. Connell was also to have been given an old engine block.

[illegible] Cabeldu, Ltd., service manager, said the assembly was a 1939 Ford block with crankshaft, pistons and rings. Installed in a customer's car, it had "pumped oil" and had to be taken out. In June, 1944, Constable Brabant, he said, has inquired about the engine, and had marked it on being shown it.

IDENTIFIES BLOCK BY ITS SERIAL NUMBER

Constable Brabant identified the block, on exhibit in court, by its serial number and his initials he had stamped on it. With consent of defence counsel, photographic copies of a Provincial Police registration form showing the block to be the property of the army were admitted as an exhibit without testimony of a provincial constable.

Hearing of the first charge was finished last week, but committal was postponed until completion of the second hearing yesterday.

A. W. Ford, pleading guilty to a charge of dangerous driving on Bay Street on Monday, was fined [illegible] pended for three months. Lee Wing, represented by James Proudfoot, pleaded not guilty to a similar charge and was remanded to next Monday.

William E. Baker was again remanded, this time until this morning, on a charge of being in possession of stolen tires.

Motorists paid two $2.50 parking fines, two $5 fines for failing to observe traffic signs, and two $15 fines for speeding.

Former City Jeweler on Destroyer

In hard-hitting, dramatic gun actions from the English Channel to the Bay of Biscay, the Royal Canadian Navy's three tribal destroyers Iroquois, Huron and Haida, have set up enviable records among other Allied navies, with an increasing toll of sunk or damaged enemy ships to their credit. Chief Engine Artificer George Gardiner, Victoria a jeweler in civilian life, joined the Navy on the outbreak of war and has had many experiences in his four-and-one-half years' service. The above photograph was taken aboard H.M.C.S. Iroquois.

Two Weeks Open Season for Does Announced for Island

Hunters in the Quamichan, Helmcken, Shawnigan and Cowichan districts, within a specified area, will be able next month to shoot one doe deer each. A provincial order in council this week provides for one doe per hunter, from December 1 to 15.

The area set out in the order in council is roughly as follows: From the mouth of Cowichan River west to the white bridge on the Island Highway at Duncan, southwesterly along Indian Road to Deerholme, easterly along the Canadian National Railway to Gleneagles, easterly along the west arm or Hatheway Road to the village of Shawnigan, along Mill Bay Road to the Island Highway, south on the Island Highway, to the Solarium Road, along the Solarium Road to the shoreline to the commencement of the area at the mouth of Cowichan River.

For some time farmers have asked that action be taken to reduce the number of deer, claiming they have caused considerable damage to gardens and contending they have been increasing as a result of less hunting than formerly.

Sport Shorts From Britain

By ALLAN NICKLESON
Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON, Nov. 7 (CP). — Ocean Swell, this year's Derby winner, disproved a belief he was a plodder with a remarkable burst of speed that won him the important Jockey Club Cup at Newmarket's closing meet of the season.

Pounding up the hill in the last furlong of the severe two-and-a-quarter-miles course, Lord Rosebery's great stayer passed Sir Malcolm McAlpine's Historic to win by three lengths going away. The horse didn't need a whip. Crack jockey Eph Smith used only his hands in guiding Ocean Swell past three horses in the final push.

"I think he is a better horse now than when he won the Derby," Lord Rosebery said after the race. "I'm keeping him to training for next year's Gold Cup.

Historic, an eccentric animal, also will be kept in training next season. He caused amusement to the unsaddling enclosure when, after his saddle had been removed, he sank to the ground and rolled over twice.

"He does that after all his races," Trainer Vic Smyth said. "And also after his exercising. It doesn't matter whether it's on the turf, clinkers or stones. He must have his roll and he thoroughly enjoys it—even if it isn't a victory roll."

Fifty-one-year-old David Lederman, of Birmingham, won $33,750 from bookmakers during a day's racing at Newmarket. While still on the course he was taken ill and died in hospital.

Now it is doubtful whether his winnings will be paid to his widow by the "bookies," because, as one expert puts it, "If Lederman had lost that money to the bookmakers before dying they would have had no legal claim on his estate for money due to betting transactions, even though track bookmaking is legal in Britain." Tattersalls Committee, which decides betting disputes, may be asked for a ruling.

A jockey's patience reformed the most handsome horse at Newmarket from a rogue who didn't care much for a race track to a hard-trying finisher.

Hunsingore, owned by Major David Holliday, had shown winning form in home gallops and had looked good enough for a Derby, but he performed as though a selling plate would have been much too much for him.

Then Jockey Harry Wragg took him over, spoke softly to him and was gentle at all times.

Hunsingore responded by winning a small race. Then, to wind up the season, he surprised almost everyone by winning the important Newmarket Cambridgeshire with Wragg up. Carrying a stiff weight burden, the three-year-old made his challenge a furlong from home and went on to win easily by three lengths.

FARM LANDS EXTENDED

BELFAST (CP). — Statistics just published show a 78 per cent increase in Northern Ireland's tillage area in 1944 as compared with 1939. The comparable increase in England and Wales was 69 per cent, and in Scotland 46 per cent. The number of cattle is the highest on record but other livestock have declined.

Over the Top

CHARLOTTETOWN, Nov. 7 (CP). —Prince Edward Island became the first province to go over the top in the Seventh Victory Loan today as campaign officials announced the smallest province had passed its $3,300,000 quota.

The total amount subscribed was not announced immediately. The Island's total last night was $2,-910,000. A $500,000 purchase today by the Provincial Government helped the province hurdle its objective.

Protection of Forests Needed

VANCOUVER, Nov. 7 (CP).—Perpetuation of timber crops in the coastal regions of rapid growth represents British Columbia's "economic Gibraltar," Robson Black, president and general manager of the Canadian Forestry Association, informed Kiwanis Club of New Westminster in a joint meeting with other service clubs and the Board of Trade at noon today.

The meeting signalized opening of a series of addresses by the Forestry Association president in many centres of the province.

The speaker drew attention to the mounting consequences of forest fires in British Columbia, contrasting the attempt to reforest 10,000 acres annually of logged-over and burned-over lands as against destruction by fire of 7,500 acres of thrifty young forests in the very regions where artificial planting is carried on.

"This dismal business," declared Mr. Black, "is not the hand of Providence. It is the public's own specific contribution to impoverishment of the next generation. An aroused and vigilant people and a strengthened forest service can put an end to it."

Trained for Front Lines

VANCOUVER, Nov. 6 (CP).—Home defence soldiers within Pacific Command have always been trained for front-line work in exactly the same way as general service volunteers, said a military spokesman for the command. He was commenting upon Defence Minister McNaughton's announcement home defence troops would receive front-line training.

"Men on industrial or agricultural leave must naturally have considerable retraining to bring them up to the standard of other soldiers within the command," the spokesman said.

"Now that harvest operations are over, the majority of draftees on such leave have returned to their units. There are still some on industrial leave, in logging and mining, but the total number is very small."

AIDS POULTRYMEN

NICOSIA (CP).—Experiments carried out in Cyprus in the feeding of poultry indicate that dried grape seeds, distillers' waste and soya beans can be used satisfactorily to replace part of the grain in the ration.

SKINNY YOUTH

Young turkeys do not put on much fat until they are at least 20 weeks old. A good special dinner buy is a tom turkey not much older than five months.

U.S. Edging Out British Trade

LONDON, Nov. 8 (Wednesday) (CP). — The Daily Mail, opening a campaign against controls on British business, published a charge today by C. J. G. Pavillard, a director of the Elder Dempster shipping organization, that Americans are edging out British trade in the Spanish-owned Canary Islands by selling goods on consignment.

Pavillard said also that American Dakota transport planes had been delivered in the Las Palmas for the Iberia Company, a Spanish air line, to re-establish service to Spain, and that American technicians and pilots remained to teach the Spaniards how to operate the planes.

"What the Americans are doing we should be doing," The Mail said, declaring it would publish daily every evidence on the "suicidal results of present controls on British industry" until there was a sign of Government action.

WEDGE SHOES FOR MEN

LONDON (CP).—British shoe manufacturers are seriously considering manufacturing wedge shoes for men. After all, they say, it took men several centuries to become accustomed to trousers and they are willing to risk a long-term chance on a new type of footwear.

According to Culbertson

Today's deal offers striking proof that "tempo," by which is meant keeping one move up on the opponents (somewhat as in checkers) is far more important than winning an isolated trick.

West decided to lead his singleton club. The ace and king were played from dummy declarer getting rid of his heart and West ruffing the second round. Now West shifted to hearts. Declarer ruffed East's ace, cashed the king and ace of diamonds, then ruffed a diamond with the six of spades.

Now that the diamond suit was established, South properly turned his attention to getting out the trumps. Dummy's queen was led; West won and returned another heart. East discarded a club and South ruffed. At this critical point South went wrong, with a vengeance! The 10 and three of trumps were still at large; if they were both in one hand it would require the jack and king, in two separate leads to draw them. True enough, but just how South proposed to make those leads remains a mystery. At any rate, unwilling to lose another trump trick, he led low to the trump jack—and there he was in the wrong hand! To return to his established diamonds he had to use his last trump, and this put East "one up."

Perhaps it is redundant to say that South should have cashed the trump king and then gone about his business, cashing diamonds until East ruffed.

Local Wholesale Produce Market

Wholesalers are experiencing a shortage of lemons. Supplies are rapidly dwindling with no further lots rolling. Texas grapefruit is available now with a further carload [illegible] The [illegible] shipment of California Valencia oranges is due next week, when there will be a stoppage of supply until about December 10. Apples of every variety are plentiful.

One wholesaler reported that Eastern cranberries would be very scarce this year, but hoped that enough would be available in the West to take care of the demand.

Pecan and almond nuts in the shell are on the market now in advance for the holiday season. Walnuts and filberts are expected at the end of November.

Turnips, cabbage, celery and cauliflower are plentiful. Daily shipments of Washington lettuce are rolling in. Local green peppers are nearly over. There is a large supply of hothouse tomatoes.

Many Late Applicants For New Ration Books

Between 50 and 60 tardy applications for Ration Book No. 5 are being received daily at the local ration office, according to A. B. Food, ration officer of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board. The majority, it was explained, are people who were either ill or out of the city during the several days when ration books were distributed in schools and the City Hall.

Approximately 100 ration books are reported lost each month, Mr. Food disclosed, due mostly to carelessness. Ration books have been found on the floors of theatres, dance halls, and even among household paper salvage. Some are found in pockets of garments sent to laundries, and others are appropriated by imaginative youngsters to serve as street car tickets.

Urging that every care should be taken of the ration books especially now that Book No. 5 lasts for 50 weeks, Mr. Food said lost books would be replaced only on receipt of a sworn declaration from a notary public. Merchants and others finding lost books are asked to return them to the local office immediately, as often new books are applied for by the losing parties.

Cadets to Parade

Victoria High School Cadets Rainbow No. 2 under Lieut. Norris Harwood will hold a special parade on the school grounds at 2.30 o'clock Friday. One hundred and twenty strong, the cadets will be inspected by commanding officer of H.M.C.S. Malahat, Lieut.-Cmdr. D. B. Scott, R.C.N.V.R.

The display originally planned for Navy Week between Nov. 16 and 25, has been advanced because of the condition of the parade ground. Cadets will go through divisions, including colors and prayers, demonstrations of first aid and seamanship and signaling.

Their executive officer is Sub-Lieut. Neil Swainson.

PLANETARY GUIDE FOR WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1944

Keywords for the Day: Moderation, Reason, Judgment.

Wednesday in General—This day is best used for careful attention to conventional and ordinary tasks. It is not a time in which to make important moves or changes or to take chances, especially concerning money matters, possessions, writings, signatures and promises. Use reason and discretion, thrift and practicality.

May 21 to June 20, Gemini—Look out for the unsound or intangible angle on Wednesday. Skip the social side of life for the time being and adhere to regular tasks and duties.

June 21 to July 22, Cancer—Be thrifty, economical, careful in money matters and concerning possessions. Don't be confused in your thinking. Tact will help.

July 23 to August 22, Leo—Be guarded in social angles. Also against an excessive desire for pleasure or expenditures. This is no time to go soft.

August 23 to September 22, Virgo—Do not get off on any indiscreet tangents on Wednesday, but make progress by being attentive to routine. Shun confusion, deception or important changes.

September 23 to October 22, Libra—Be guarded concerning finances, possessions, important papers. Don't mix friendships and money matters. Make sure plans are not betrayed by misplaced confidence.

December 22 to January 19, Capricorn—Stabilize accounts, be attentive to the demands of health and your job. Keep a skeptical eye on plans and programs put forth by others.

January 20 to February 18, Aquarius—Curtail pleasure seeking and romance on Wednesday, for your strength and resources need bolstering. Let others take the initiative a bit but don't depend upon them. Don't be dependent on co-operation, be self-reliant.

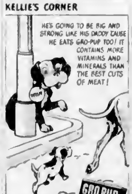

February 19 to March 20, Pisces—A turning point in business, partnership or public interests may be reached today. Square away any complications, display your capacity for work and service if you want recognition.

Fraud Hearing On Tomorrow

Preliminary hearing of a charge of conspiracy to defraud the Government, against Frederick Rough and Clement H. Davies, naval dockyard employees, was adjourned in city police court yesterday to 2.30 [illegible]

Adjournment was decided by Magistrate H. C. Hall after G. H. Sedger, prosecutor, indicated he was not prepared immediately to argue a point raised by the magistrate. P. J. Sinnott, defence counsel, had submitted that conspiracy of Rough and Davies to defraud the Government through traveling expense accounts had not been proved by the prosecution.

Mr. Sedger stated that evidence of Kenneth Vidal, W. H. Hillier and James Collier, that they had not stayed at Vancouver hotels for which receipts were advanced by Rough, proved conspiracy by Rough and Davies, as evidence had shown the purported receipts to have been made out in part by Davies. Vidal, Hillier and Collier were members of a dockyard work party that went to Vancouver in 1943.

The magistrate said that evidence showed the three men to have received no more than the regulation $5 a day. The claim presented by Rough had asked $45.90 for expenses of W. A Walker, a fourth member of the party, and he had testified he received only $30, but Davies had not been shown to be connected with Walker's receipts, the magistrate said.

Referring to the Vidal, Hillier and Collier receipts, the magistrate then asked, "Where was the Government defrauded? Is there fraud on the Government if it has lost no money?"

Mr Sedger argued that loss of money was the vital point. "It is not incumbent on the prosecution to prove that money was lost, but that improper means were adopted," he declared. The magistrate will hear further argument on the point on Thursday.

Five similar charges against Rough and Bernard Howard, for which preliminary hearings have been held in one case and waived in four others, have been adjourned to this morning for decision as to committal. Mr Sinnott and W A. Brethour, defence counsel, said they wished further adjournment until completion of the Rough-Davies case.

Navy Reaches 145 Per Cent in Loan

A mark of 145.7 per cent was attained by the Royal Canadian Navy in this area yesterday with total sales for Pacific Command reaching $517,000.

In the trophy race for major and minor warships and patrol vessels, a minesweeper led the first class with 172.5 per cent of its quota; Fairmile 069 topped minor war vessels with 288 per cent, and Talapus stayed ahead of all patrol vessels by subscribing four times its quota.

Shore establishments continued to show returns although sales fell off a little. H M C S Givenchy reported 152 per cent at $80,000 and Naden 108.1 per cent at $51,000.

The combined operations training school at Comox, a consistent leader, reported total sales to date of $16,250 for 162.5 per cent. The Royal Canadian Naval College showed increased returns up to yesterday with $11,450, or 143.1 per cent.

City Life New to Girl From Aklavik

EDMONTON, Nov. 7 (CP).—Bright lights may be nothing new to "city folk," but to Sarah McLeod they're a novelty. The 18-year-old miss hails from Aklavik, N.W.T., and she has never before been south of the Arctic circle.

"City life is strange and I don't care for the traffic and noise," she [illegible] Edmonton. But, she surmised, she'll have to get used to it, for she's heading east to visit friends there.

Aklavik is a nice place to live, she thinks "We have movies and dances and lots of work to do."

Describes Damage Done by Insects

Damage caused throughout the world by the Germans and Japanese was infinitesimal compared with that which had been wrought during the past years by insects, according to Dr. G. Clifford Carl, director of the Provincial Museum, who addressed members of the Victoria Horticultural Society last night in the City Hall.

Using a wooden model of a typical insect, the speaker outlined differences between bugs, insects and beetles. All insects had only six legs, he said.

Benefits of some insects to humanity, and the harmfulness of others, were outlined. One of the most recent serious pests to become prevalent in Victoria, Dr. Carl said, was the apple sawfly, which already had caused considerable damage in Saanich orchards. A film, showing the complete life of a mosquito, was shown at the conclusion of the meeting. E. M. Whyte, president, was chairman.

LONDON (CP)—Sued for $5,000 by the woman he knocked down, a bus driver here was ordered by court to pay $5 a month—which will clean off the claim in 100 years.

Seek Repayment Of Relief Loan

Disclosing yesterday that the deputy provincial finance minister had demanded repayment by the city of $300,000 loaned by the Province for relief costs, Mayor Andrew McGavin said he would give the question immediate study.

Amounts of $94,500, $100,000 and $105,500 were advanced on city notes, the first two in 1935 and the other in 1936, in the time of the late Mayor David Leeming. Mayor McGavin said he had been informed that it was understood the money was not to be repaid. However, interest had been paid on it since 1935.

The deputy minister wrote: "I would welcome hearing from you as to the manner in which you propose to liquidate this debt." Questioned yesterday, he said he had not authority to state whether other municipalities had been sent similar demands.

It was learned that the relief loans came to the fore during discussions on the city's refunding plan.

The letter, addressed to the mayor, was not acted on by the finance committee at its last meeting, other than to refer it to the mayor for action.

Most Casualties Exacted in Burma

LONDON, Nov. 7 (CP-Reuter).—Air Chief Marshal Sir Philip Joubert, deputy chief of staff to Lord Mountbatten in the Southeast Asia Command, said at a press conference today that British and Indian forces in Burma had to date inflicted a greater number of casualties on the Japanese than any other force in the Pacific theatre.

These troops of the Fourteenth Army were fighting in and holding the biggest single front in the Pacific — 100,000 square miles of jungle.

Cossack Chorus At Royal Tonight

The General Platoff Don Cossack Chorus, singing in Victoria at the Royal Victoria Theatre tonight, takes its name from a celebrated Russian hero of the early 19th century and from a river which flows through their homeland.

General Platoff was one of the leaders in the war of attrition which made Napoleon's invasion of Russia a military disaster. He was a Cossack from the River Don, where most of the members of the choir come from, and he was a musician as well as a soldier, often leading his troops in the folk music of the southern steppes.

When this chorus was organized among a group of exiled Cossacks in Prague in 1926 it took its name from the musical general of a century ago. And because there were many Cossack districts in Imperial Russia they identified themselves by including the name of the 1,200-mile River Don, which drains the region in which they were born.

The Cossacks, of course, were the finest soldiers of Imperial Russia, and at the outbreak of the Great War there were about 3,000,000 of them in the Czarist armies. As a class, living as they did on the vast plains of the Ukraine and Southern Russia, they developed the same skill as horsemen, and much the same individual self-sufficiency that are the inherited qualities of the American cowboy.
